PRIVATE BUCKAROO

1942 / 68:00 / B/W / Musical/ War

Director: Edward F. Cline

Starring: The Andrews Sisters, Dick Foran, Joe E. Lewis, Jennifer Holt

SYNOPSIS:

The Andrews Sisters, James Harry and a whole assortment of jitterbuggers, musicians and singers come alive in a USO theater. After several numbers and comic interludes the leader, Dick Foran, is sent to the army as a recruit. He manages to get privileged treatment in spite of all regulations until he falls with a crash for the niece of a retired army officer. The film is the vehicle for some memorable songs: "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree with Anyone Else But Me", "Three Little Sisters" and more.

REVIEWS:

"Andrews Sisters deliver in their regular expert style, being provided with several cinch hit tunes." Variety, June 3, 1942
